Statehood and good roads come next.

The carpathaggers' special left Oklahoma last Tuesday with all on board.

The "result" was not unexpected.—Weekly Journal.
Oh, quit your "kiddie."

Some man will some day in some way bring about the abolition of the "straw vote," and his grateful countrymen will give him everything he wants, and then some more.

General prosperity continues to get a full share of bouquets in public, but general prices has a monopoly of the private cussing.

That brown taste was in evidence Wednesday morning. Weekly Journal.

Brought on no doubt by the colored vote.

That Connecticut girl who has married a Japanese professor at Yale believes the danger from the yellow peril is greatly exaggerated.

Frantz still claims he is elected by anywhere from 15,000 to 40,000 votes. Well, if that's all that's worrying him, let him have his own way.

Secretary Metcalf is purely a dissembling man; he actually declines to give up his cabinet portfolio just to make good resignation rumors.

The Fairbanks press agents are now insisting that, instead of chilling things, he carries more hot air around than any of the would-be's, but maybe that also is not hot air.

That prophetic evangelist who has doomed the entire republic, because of the wickedness in New York City, is a little hard on the remainder of the country, isn't he?

Grover Cleveland declines to be killed off by sensational accounts of the state of his health, and says he is still in the game, though a little grouchy by reason of the gout.

Indian Territory will no longer be humiliated by being deprived of a school fund while the federal government is appropriating thousands for the education of the Philippine negroes. With statehood Oklahoma possesses the resources to provide a magnificent school fund of its own.

The Democratic barnyard has had use for all of its roosters since the election.

Secretary Taft thinks so well of Islands that he will ask Congress to authorize the building of one in the mouth of Chesapeake bay, to be fortified, at a cost of $3,000,000.

An Ohio woman was stung to death by honey bees the other day. That's where men have the bulge. There isn't the slightest danger, physically, in the sting of the presidential bee.

Democracy will have three able representatives in congress in Carter, Ferris and Davenport. Eagleton and Fulton appear to be beaten by Oklahoma's black vote, but there is still a chance for one or both to pull through by a small majority.

St. Louis is rehearsing to sing "Dig Her Deep Through Dixie" to "Teddy," when he goes down "the father of waters," but "Teddy's" song in response has not been publicly named, though its tenor may readily be guessed.

That St. Louis wife who put it up to "hubby" to choose between her and cigarettes and got left at the post, ought to make a willing worker against the "white coffin nails," after she gets the divorce off her hands.

Judge Landis should get his politics on straight. Some Democrats are seriously talking of him for a candidate for president, while some Republicans are just as seriously talking of him for a running-mate for "Big Bill."

Far be it from us to think of doubting the claim that if one of the new steel passenger cars, going at full speed, should have a head-on collision it would only give the passengers a little shake-up. Still, we are not disposed to volunteer as one of the passengers to practically demonstrate it.

Mrs. Tucker who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lige Henderson, returned to her home in Sulphur Springs, Ark.

Mrs. A. M. Etchen, Mrs. Vance McSpadden, Miss Mabel Bagley and Harry Bagley returned from a visit at Bartlesville this morning.

The white Republicans are claiming they carried the county ticket by a slight majority although the returns have not as yet been counted by the canvassing board, but the boys seem particularly jubilant over the fact that if the Republican ticket wins out that the county will have seventeen negro justices of the peace.—Muskogee Times-Democrat.
